The Campaign Opens.

The Democratic State Central Committee has decided to open the campaign in this State on Saturday, September 22. On that date it is expected to have addresses made in almost every town in the State and continue until election day.

Political Snap Shots

"Teddy" Roosevelt addressed his audience at Holland, Michigan, last Saturday as "My Fellow Dutchman" and was introduced by the Chairman as "a born Dutchman." After this let no man say "demagogue" when speaking of any Democratic candidate.

A Hannaite contemporary says it is now proven that the Administration has formed a combination with Russia against England. Why? Is it because McKinley admired the way in which Russian soldiers slaughtered Chinese women and tossed innocent Chinese babies to and fro on their bayonets? And how about that time-honored doctrine about "entangling alliances with none?" But you just wait, Mr. Yolo Mail, and see what this Administration will do against England to favor Russia.

It has been said that McKinley's pictures resemble those of the Great Napoleon. The parallel does not stop them. Napoleon believed he was the "man of destiny." So does McKinley. Napoleon won victories both in his own and foreign lands. So has McKinley. Napoleon set aside the laws of his country and made rules to suit himself. So has McKinley. Napoleon met his Waterloo. So will McKinley.

No man ever elected President of the United States, has been able to defeat the same man twice. All precedents say that Bryan will be elected.

As a part of his campaign literature "Teddy" Roosevelt has written to a friend that he has killed two buffaloes in his life, both of them bulls. He adds that he ate the hump meat and the tongues. Wonder if that's what makes him talk so much and bellow so loudly.

"Teddy" isn't calling Democrats cowards any more. $ Hanna shut him up on that "pooty quick".

The man who can see and will not, is worse off than he who has always groped in darkness and a man who sees a thing is black and yet thru partisanship swears it is white, is not fit to be trusted.

Lincoln abolished slavery in all territory of the United States occupied by our Armies, and the Constitution afterwards abolished thruout all territory over which the United States government had or should ever have jurisdiction. McKinley legalized slavery in "our new possessions" by treaty.

If the treaty with Spain gave us title to and possession of the entire Philippine archipelago, why was it thot necessary or expedient to make a new treaty with the Sultan of the Sulu groupe, legalizing slavery and polygamy in those islands?

Aguinaldo was at the head of a de facto government in Luzon before the Treaty of Paris was made or ratified. So was the Sultan of Mindanao at the head of a de facto government in the southern islands. Why did McKinley recognize the latter and send armies to kill the former?

A Hannaite contemporary from the orange and walnut belt of the California southland says: To abandon the Philippines means nothing more or less than that Russia, England, Germany or some one, or perhaps all of them would at once take them in as they have Samoa etc. Said Joaquin Murietta to three fingered Jack, "we may as well rob this bank now, for if we don't Valdes will come along as soon as we are gone, and he'll loot the whole shebang".

Camp Novelty Entertains.

As hop picking is the fad of the season a great many of Ukiah's prominent families are in the fields at present enjoying the opportunity of physical development as well as to learn the value of hard earned dollars and cents. One of the most pleasant and popular fields to pick in is Mr. John Cunningham's, where work and pleasure seem to be in harmony, due the generous hospitality of the landlord and the congeniality of Mr. Chas. Scott, the field boss.

Among the series of entertainment there was a dance given at the farm house by Mr. Cunningham to the hop pickers which was very much enjoyed by all; then a hay ride and who does not know the pleasure of this rural sport, and, last but not least, an entertainment given at Camp Novelty by the occupants thereof, Mesdames Reid and Ames, which comprised the following program:

News From Klondyke.

Eugene Crockett, who left here in February, 1898, with his brother John, for Klondyke, returned to this city last Monday. Gene spent over two years in the Klondyke prospecting for gold. He and John enjoyed the best of health all the time and did fairly well. They arrived in the city last week and John proceeded to Santa Ana where he accepted a position with Sam Obar.

On their way home the boys stopped over at Nome for a week, but didn't fancy the place. While there they saw Doc Standley, Elmer Townsend, Lee Taylor, Joe Jourden, L. F. Long, Dr. Paddleford and Bob Mann, and Harry Goggins. Standley is doing a big packing business and L. F. Long has a distilled water plant and furnishes the people distilled water. Joe Jourden has a saloon and is doing well. Rufe Lucas is working in the mines. Lee Taylor, Dr. Paddleford and Bob Mann had gone out into the country district to prospect. Charley Graham came back to the city with the boys. Jim Elwell was still in Klondyke. Gene says that Dawson has about 16,000 people there and is still flourishing. Wages are good. He would not advise people to go to Nome, however. Everything is overdone there.

Hayman-Shaw.

A very pretty wedding took place in Potter valley last Sunday evening when Mr. G. S. Hayman and Miss Winifred Claire Shaw were united in marriage by Rev. White. The interesting ceremony was performed at the home of the bride and was witnessed by a number of the friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony a reception was held and all wished the happy couple a long life of unalloyed bliss.

The bride was one of Potter's fairies while the groom holds a lucrative position under Uncle Sam at Station K., San Francisco.

The happy couple departed Thursday for the city where they will make their future home.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Important Occurrences of the Past Seven Days.

Summary of What has Just Occurred. Accidents and Incidents.

T. C. Gibson, a blacksmith of Calpella, was arrested in Ukiah for disturbing the peace. He pleaded not guilty before Justice Critchfield and was held for trial. Wednesday morning he changed his plea to "guilty" and asked the mercy of the court. Frank Farrance was sworn to testify to the nature of the offence. The facts as testified to are as follows: Gibson's family were engaged in picking hops at the Berryhill ranch below Ukiah. Tuesday afternoon Gibson came there in a wagon, drunk, and began throwing his wife's camp outfit into the wagon, at the same time cursing the children in a loud and angry voice, so as to be heard at great distance. Frank Farrance rode to where Gibson was and ordered him to stop his loud swearing. Gibson drew a knife and stuck threatiningly at Farrance, just missing the horse. Gibson then made an attack on his wife, knocked her down and kicked her, breaking two of her ribs and dislocating the third one. He then threatened to kill Farrance and the young man who was with him. He said he would get two six-shooters and would finish them. Late in the evening he came to Ukiah where a warrant was ready for him. A doctor was called to treat Mrs. Gibson, and as we write she is confined to her bed; After taking time to consider Justice Critchfield, at 4 o'clock p. m. Wednesday, sentenced Gibson to pay a fine of $20.00 and in addition that he be committed to jail for 10 days.

Railroad Work Started.

Messrs. Muir Bros. & Muir, the contractors for the first ten miles of grading on the C. & N. Railway extension from this city, promptly sent up a large force of men and teams to begin work, and for several days past plowing and grading have been going on. Two camps have been established, one a short distance above town and one farther up. The contractors have their own shops and a complete outfit. They are paying the men $2.00 per day and charging them $4.50 per week for board. Trainloads of heavy steel rails and other construction material are coming in right along.

Destructive Fire in Potter.

Last Saturday the large hop house of Joseph Spotswood in Potter valley was entirely destroyed by fire. Our information is that the men about the kiln were up on the drying floor turning the hops, when they heard a roaring sound which at first they took to be wind. They soon discovered that it was the roaring of flames. Nothing could be done to save the building nor its contents. The hop house was valued at about $3,000 and was insured for $1,300 with an additional insurance of $200 on the baling press. The dried hops, the product of about 24 acres, were insured for the market price which we learn was fixed at 15 cents a pound. Mr. Spotswood secured the use of the Cal English kiln between Ukiah and Calpella to finish drying his crop and has been hauling the green hops to that place.

Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention met in San Jose last Thursday and Friday for the purpose of selecting Presidential Electors and nominating Congressmen. The convention was called to order by Senator J. C. Sims, Chairman of the State Central Committee, and R. M. Fitzgerald was elected temporary and permanent chairman. The convention was the most harmonious and enthusiastic one that has been held in many years. There was a large attendance of delegates and all seemed sure of Bryan's election.

Mendocino county was honored by the selection of Hon. J. H. Seawell by a unanimous vote for Elector at large. W. H. Stimson was chosen as the other elector at large. The following district electors were then chosen: 1st District, J. P. Haynes; 2nd District, W. R. Jacobs, 3rd District, W. R. Prather; 4th District, W. T. Baggett; 5th District, J. N. Block 6th District, T. A. Rice; 7th District, J. A. Cole,

For Representatives in Congress the following gentlemen were nominated: 1st District, J. F. Farraher; 2nd District, J. D. Sproule; 3rd District, Frank Freeman; 4th District, R. Porter Asche; 5th District, J. H. Henry; 6th District, Wm. Graves; 7th District, W. D. Crighton.

The convention was addressed by D. M. Delmas and Senator White.

The country delegates all seemed to think that Bryan is stronger this year than he was in 1896, and think he can carry the State if San Francisco will hold her own. The factions there have harmonized now, so it seems that Democracy's chances are good for carrying California.

Democratic Clubs.

Every Democratic Club in the county should make prompt application for membership in the National Association of Democratic Clubs, in order to secure proper representation at the great convention to be held at Indianapolis October 3rd and 4th, 1900. All that is necessary to join the Association of Clubs is to send a statement of organization and list of officers to the State Central Committee, or to the Western Organizer, Mayor James D. Phelan, 301 Phelan Bldg., San Francisco, Cal., together with a formal application for membership. There is no expense connected with it.

Hop Prices.

San Francisco Prices Current, under date of Sept. 8th, report receipts from September 1st, 1900, 92 bales and exports by sea 1,183 lbs. The report continues: "There is a tolerably firm tone to the market, but not much to report in the way of business, growers as a rule holding off the market for the time being. Eastern and foreign advices are in the main favorable for the selling interest. Judging from the past, most favorable conditions for disposing of holdings are most likely to be experienced during the next sixty or ninety days. Hops of 1900 crop are quotable nominally at 10@12½ cts. for fair to choice."

"How Does God Do?"

A three year old boy who lived with his parents in the mountains where a great deal of blasting was going on, had inquired of his mother how the blasting was done. She explained that when all was ready the men set the fuse off and then ran. Soon afterward a great thunder storm came up. He asked about that and his mother told him God was doing that. "Mama," said he, how does God do? Does he set the fuse and then run?"

CHAMP CLARK'S LETTER

Bryan's Masterly Speeches and Their Effect.

POWERFUL CAMPAIGNING.

Secretary Hay as a Hauler Down of the American Flag.

TEDDY IS THE WHOLE THING.

Altgeld Portrays the Braggart In His True Colors—Strong Possibility That the Democrats May Carry Ohio—Philippine Policy of the Administration—Different Kinds of Expansion.

[Special Washington Letter.]

In prize ring parlance Bryan is a wonder.

He succeeded in making a speech at Indianapolis against which even the most bitter Republicans have nothing to say except that he ought to have discussed 16 to 1 instead of imperialism, which the Kansas City convention declared to be "the paramount issue." What a contrast all this forms to the howl of ribald execration with which his wondrous speech at Chicago in 1896 was received! Truly Bryan is to be congratulated on having conquered the good opinion of his enemies.

Sure as a gun is made of iron the white man is mighty uncertain.

It grieves me sorely to state it, but it now appears that the theory embodied in the presidential questions propounded at a banquet down south at 2 o'clock in the morning—"Who will haul down the American flag? Men of Dixie, will you haul it down?"—is an adjustable theory made to fit circumstances. This discovery causes me to somewhat lose faith in human nature. For many moons rantankerous Republicans have at long range denounced as traitors all who would not subscribe to the idiotic doctrine that under no circumstances whatsoever should we pull our flag down from any place where we had floated it for any reason. Such jabber as they got off was not pleasant to hear or easy to bear.

Hauling Down the Flag.

But, mirabile dictu! now, after all this boasting and cavorting around, after all this playing of the Pharisee, Colonel John Hay, secretary of state, gives away to Johnnie Bull a strip of Alaska 20 miles wide and over 100 miles long! Didn't our flag float over that strip of auriferous soil? Hadn't it floated there triumphantly since 1867, when Andrew Johnson and William H. Seward added Alaska to our possessions? And in order to make Mr. Bull this valuable present, will it not be necessary to haul Old Glory down? Isn't this the swiftest and most thorough expose of rank hypocrisy in modern times?

Colonel Hay is one of the most amiable of mortals. He is a scholar and writer of rare ability. His "Pike County Ballads" are famous, and his "Life of Abraham Lincoln" is a standard work, but I fear that Colonel Hay's residence at the court of St. James has given a bias to his thoughts and sentiments in favor of Mr. Bull which is detrimental to his country. If Colonel Hay doesn't quit coquetting with John, his name is not likely to blossom in the dust. The Hay-Pauncefote treaty was a nauseating dose for the American people. When they discover that the colonel has presented Mr. Bull with a valuable strip of gold bearing land several times as large as Rhode Island, they are quite likely to make it unpleasant for the amiable Colonel Hay.

Teddy Is It.

Colonel Teddy is It. He has been It ever since he delivered that St. Paul harangue. By this time it has perhaps percolated through his noddle that it is dangerous for the occupant of a glass house to throw stones. Ex-Governor John Peter Altgeld in that Toledo speech to which I referred in my last letter says:

> Who, then, is this man, and what is his history? Personalities are offensive, and I will not indulge in them. But surely, when we are thus brutally assaulted, we may ask who it is that is berating us. I will notice only a few of the incidents of his public career, which throw light on the question of his sincerity and discretion. I find it recorded that years ago he was a member of the New York legislature, and on one occasion he roused the hopes of the country by making a speech against a class which he called the criminal rich. But he at once dashed these hopes by turning around and voting with and for these very criminal rich whom he had denounced.
>
> In the years 1897-8 he held a federal office in Washington, and in order to escape paying his taxes in New York he signed an affidavit and swore before the ever living God that he was not a citizen of New York. If this was true, then, under the constitution of New York, he would not have been eligible for the governor of that state. By subsequently accepting a nomination and election to that office he showed that he did not believe his own affidavit. This being so, may it not be that he does not believe the charge he has made against us?
>
> It is next recorded that he entered the Spanish war in Cuba, and, although his regiment was commanded by another man, he succeeded, by means of that modern weapon of warfare known as a newspaper bureau, in winning more renown in a week than General Grant did in four years of hard fighting, and he seems to be the only man on this continent who boasts of having, with his own hand, shot down and killed a Spaniard that was fleeing from the battlefield. In his book he says: "As they turned to run I closed in and fired twice, missing the first and killing the second." He then boasts that he had considered this feat unique. And so it is. He is the first brave man to shoot an enemy in the back.
>
> Again the modern historians tell us that it was he who first demonstrated to mankind that however useful the camera may be to science, to art and to industry, its true mission is to develop tin plate heroes.
>
> The records at Albany show that the governor got the legislature to pass a law taxing the franchises of corporations—a most righteous law. But the records also show that, at the demands of Tom Platt and the corporations, he reconvened the legislature in extra session and had it change this law as the corporations dictated.
>
> The canal fund of New York had been robbed of about $9,000,000 by Republican politicians, and, although he talked loudly of prosecution, the governor has not brought one of these men to justice.
>
> History records the fact that the governor has never lost an opportunity, when standing in the temple or the market place, to make loud protestations of heroic virtue, but the historian has searched in vain for any evidence of performance. The volume of profession is full, but the page of performance is a blank.
>
> I wish to avoid even the appearance of severity, and as I have not the language to properly characterize this man's career, I shall not attempt it. He is the right man to defend criminal aggression and the abandonment of plain duty by the president. He is the right man to defend a war of conquest, the burning of towns, the slaughter of people and the assassination of liberty. But the Democratic party will pay no attention to his vulgar assaults.

If anything more caustic than that has appeared since Sir Philip Francis wrote the "Letters of Junius," I have not seen it. What's more, Colonel Roosevelt richly deserved the excoriation.

Politics In Ohio.

I have been in Ohio lately, giving political joint lectures at Chautauquas with my Republican friends, Hon. Jonathan Prentiss Dolliver of Iowa and Charles B. Landis of Indiana, and, while I am neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet, I should not be at all surprised to see Bryan get the electoral vote of Ohio and to see a majority of the Ohio delegation in congress Democratic. Now, mark you, I am not claiming Ohio, but I am stating that from close observation, from conversations with all manner and condition of people, my conclusion is that Democrats have the best chance to bag Ohio that they have had since Franklin Pierce mopped up the earth with General Winfield Scott in 1852.

The Jones vote added to the McLean vote would give the state to the Democrats by some 50,000, and that's precisely the thing which makes all things uncertain and which keeps everybody jumping. Where will the Jones vote be found this time? Is the question that gives Mark Hanna trouble, for Mark knows—none better—that if it once gets orated about that Ohio is a doubtful state that fact alone will defeat Mark.

At Lancaster Colonel Davidson and I had what many said was the greatest crowd assembled in Ohio at a political function since the log cabin, coonskin, hard cider campaign of 1840. Excitement was intense, which bodes good for the Democrats.

Human Nature the Same Everywhere.

Napoleon once said, "Scratch a Russian, and you will find a Tartar," and it really appears that if you scratch the average American citizen you will strike a savage. For years a good many good people in highly respectable communities, laying the flattering unction to their souls that they are better than the rest of us, have had a great deal to say about the lynchings in the south and west and have intimated very broadly that we, the denizens of those regions, were lapsing into barbarism. I believe they have even gone so far as to organize an antilynching society in Boston, the undisputed hub of the universe. The intention of this amiable society is to educate the people of the south and west into such a beatific state of mind that they will cease to lynch outrageous criminals. I have no doubt that the intentions of these Bostonese reformers are good, but it is said that hades is paved with good intentions. I once read of a little girl who put some obstacle in the way of a philosopher who was always star gazing. He fell over it and barked his shins and angrily inquired why she did it. She innocently replied, "To make you observe the beauties closer at hand."

During the Greek war for independence John Randolph of Roanoke visited an aristocratic lady neighbor of his and found her busily engaged making clothing for the naked Greeks. When he started to leave, the front yard was full of half naked pickaninnies. Pointing his long, bony forefinger at them, he shrieked to his hostess, "Madam, the Greeks are at your door!" I commend these two anecdotes to the Bostonese antilynchers and would suggest to them that they send an agent forthwith to Akron, O., a Republican city in a Republican state, the state of the president, of Hanna, Grosvenor and Foraker and many other apostles of the true, the beautiful and the good. Out there the other day they had the worst riot which has taken place since the Cincinnati riot some years ago. Strange to say, this rioting, bloodshed, arson and murder grew out of the fact that a negro brute had criminally assaulted a white girl. Now, mirabile dictu! this is the very same crime for which southerners lynch men. All of which goes to show that human nature is the same in Ohio as in Mississippi, and the only way the society can stop these lynchings is by devising a way to stop the commission of these crimes for which men are now lynched.

I am not an advocate of lynch law—far from it—but I will undertake to say without the fear of successful contradiction that under the same provocation as that under which southern people lynch brutal outlaws and under which the Akron mob was operating a lynching can be pulled off with great eclat within sight of the headquarters of the Boston Antilynching society, and I would not be at all surprised if some of the members of the society would take a hand at the rope, for, after all, they are only human, and Mark Twain says we all have a heap of human nature in us.

Philippine Policy.

Among the very strongest and ablest men in the house of representatives is the Hon. James R. Williams of Carmi, Ills., popularly called "Bob" Williams. He knows what he wants to say, and he knows how to say it. He strikes straight from the shoulder every time. He is something more, however, than a very strong speaker; he is a student and a thinker. He is as faithful to Democratic principles as is the needle to the pole. There is not a member of the house on either side of the big aisle who does not entertain a wholesome respect for Bob Williams.

In discussing the policy of the president toward the Philippine Islanders Congressman Williams rang the bell every shot. In concluding his speech he said:

> But in answer to all these allegations we are met with the very eloquent but empty phrase, "Who will pull down the flag?" I answer, the American government, whenever its honor and glory require it, but no other power on earth shall ever haul it down. Our government has always pulled it down from places where it did not belong. It pulled it down in Mexico, in Canada, and, if we observe our sacred pledge, we will haul it down in Cuba whenever its people desire it.
>
> We had better haul it down in Cuba now than have it wave over that fair island as the banner of larceny and corruption. I would rather see it go down in honor than up in dishonor; down as the emblem of liberty than up as the emblem of despotism. Our flag should never remain in any land where the constitution can never go and American liberty can never dwell. I would rather have it snatched from its mast a thousand times than see its sacred folds unfurled to the breeze as the new banner of American imperialism, the funeral signal of the republic.
>
> Who will pull down the flag? I ask: Who will pull down the Declaration of Independence? Who will pull down the constitution? The sad echo comes from the White House, William, the conqueror, he will pull them down. He has already torn from their sacred pages the sublime sentiments of liberty and freedom and written in their stead, in letters of blood, the bitter words of tryanny and oppression.
>
> Would to God the Republican party of today contained within its ranks another Lincoln, to check it in its downward course of criminal aggression and restore it to the sacred precincts of human liberty it once enjoyed.
>
> But the question is frequently asked by gentlemen on the other side, How can the Democrats oppose the annexation of those islands when Jefferson, their great founder, was such an expansionist? Jefferson was an expansionist, but not an imperialist. Jefferson's expansion consisted in acquiring territory here on this hemisphere, then in the possession of a foreign power, thereby removing from our very doors a European colony whose presence here made war more threatening and defense more difficult.
>
> McKinley's expansion gives us territory 10,000 miles from this capital and carries us right into the broils and entanglements of all the warring powers of Europe. Jefferson's expansion removed the foreign flag from our shores, while McKinley's expansion carries our flag into a foreign land. Jefferson's expansion strengthened our fortifications and made it easier to defend our territory than before, while McKinley's expansion weakens our fortifications and makes our national defense more difficult and expensive. Jefferson acquired territory with a population of one to every 25 square miles, with a climate adapted to our people and suitable for American homes, while McKinley is trying to acquire territory with a population of over 70 to the square mile, with a climate entirely unfit for our people and never intended for American homes. Jefferson acquired territory to become future states of the republic, inhabited by American citizens, while McKinley is acquiring territory to become colonies of the United States, inhabited by subjects and not citizens. Jefferson expanded the republic with our territory, while McKinley is expanding our territory without the republic.
>
> Jefferson's expansion carried to the inhabitants of the new territory the glad message of peace and constitutional liberty, while McKinley's expansion carries to the inhabitants of the new territory the sad message of death and despotism. No liberty, no freedom, no happiness! Jefferson's annexation gave the inhabitants of the ceded territory representation with taxation and a government with the consent of the governed. McKinley's annexation gives to the inhabitants of the new territory taxation without representation and government without the consent of the governed.
>
> Jefferson's expansion was republicanism; McKinley's expansion is imperialism. How absurd to compare the peaceable annexation of territory here on our own hemisphere, right at our own door, thinly settled, good climate and suitable for homes for our own people and for future states of the republic, with the forcible annexation of several hundred small islands 7,000 miles from our nearest shores, with a climate unfit for Americans, with a dense population of people alien to our government, our institutions and our civilization. Who will be so blind as not to see the distinction?
>
> No, Mr. Chairman, McKinley imperialism will find no likeness in the whole history of this republic. Thank God, America has had but one Napoleon, and I hope she may never have another.
>
> Already American liberty under this administration has become too timid to sympathize with the oppressed of other lands now struggling for that same liberty and freedom which we ourselves enjoy. If we had a Washington, Jefferson or Lincoln in the White House today, the American government would be sympathizing with the liberty loving Boers of South Africa instead of their British oppressors.
>
> But it is whispered we are now in the act of becoming a world power, and no one must disturb the evolution. Why, sir, we have been a world power for over a hundred years. We are now, and for years have been, the mightiest world power on the face of the earth, made so not by war, but by peace—long reigns of peace. Sir, what has contributed more to our rapid progress as a nation than the pure sunlight of peace, which has cast its rays of glory into every corner of the republic?
>
> Under its sweet influence we have expanded in education, science, art, literature, useful inventions and all the happy auxiliaries of a progressive civilization. Who is not proud of our whole history as a republic, living under the constitution and within the constitution as our fathers made it? Who would exchange it now for an empire? With such supreme satisfaction of our past, why imperil the future by attempting new schemes or trying new experiments? Why not permit the old ship of state to sail on upon that same well tried sea, which will surely carry it safely through to higher honors and grander glories for the republic?
>
> But, alas, who will haul down the flag? I answer, who will haul down McKinley? The people, the liberty loving people. They will haul him down early in November. They will snatch from his imperial brow his glittering crown bought with the blood of his countrymen and enthrone in his place of power that gallant champion of human rights, that fearless defender of human freedom, and crown him with the Declaration of Independence and the constitution of the republic.

Champ Clark

Americans In Spain.

A Madrid correspondent of the Baltimore American says: "The Spaniard makes no distinction between the people and products of England and North America, but labels them all 'Ingleses.' Here 'American' means South American, representing countries with which these people are much more familiar than with the United States, and if you tell them that you are an 'American' they immediately express surprise that you do not speak Spanish as fluently as they do.

This misunderstanding seems to be equally shared by the South Americans who come to visit the mother country and who frequently apply to the American minister at Madrid for assistance or advice when they should go instead to Chile or Peru or wherever they hail from. All this seems natural enough in view of the close relations that have always existed between Spain and her ex-colonies, but it is not flattering to the national pride of Uncle Sam's sons and daughters to find their beloved land sponged off the map altogether."

ANTS EAT BULLS AND BEES.

Hon. Will S. Green is editor and proprietor of the Colusa Sun—may he live forever. He is always to the front in forwarding any enterprise for the material progress of the State or his county. General Green has made a useful discovery and as usual he gives the world the benefit of it. In the Sun of the 8th he says that the Apis got among the orange trees in his back yard, and the ants went to work and ate them all up. Now, there are two kinds of Apis, and General Green fails to inform us which kind he refers to. One kind is the genus of bees typical of Apidae and the other is the sacred bull worshipped by the Egyptians.

It would be interesting to know whether it was bees or bulls that invaded brother Green's back yard.

One of Hanna's Champions.

As Bryan and the Democratic papers, in their battle against Imperialism are quoting a good deal from the speeches and writings of Abraham Lincoln, our Hannaite adversaries are trying to make a point by referring to the fact that in Lincoln's life-time his acts were criticized by certain Democrats. This article is to show that Republicans of high standing, were the men who made Lincoln's burdens so intolerable. And the Republicans who abused Lincoln then are high in the confidence of the Hannaites to-day. We here give one striking instance. The Kansas City Star recently opened in its columns a "Forum" for the discussion of the issues of this campaign, in which both parties are to be given a hearing. Mark Hanna has selected Murat Halstead to present the Hannaite side of the issues. Halstead, during the Civil War was connected with the Cincinnatti Commercial and took a very active part in affairs. Salmon P. Chase was Secretary of the Treasury in 1863, and in February of that year, during the siege of Vicksburg, Halstead took occasion to send Secretary Chase a copy of a private letter received by him from an observer in Grant's army accusing Grant of drunkenness and incompetency. Halstead then comments as follows, his letter having been published in the Sacramento Bee at the time, and republished August 22, 1900:

"Governor Chase, these things are true. Our noble Army of the Mississippi is being wasted by the foolish, drunken, stupid Grant. He can't organize or control or fight an army. I have no personal feeling about it but I know he is an ass There is not among the whole list of retired Major-Generals a man who is not Grant's superior. McClellan, Fremont, McDowell, Burnside, Franklin, even Pope or Sumner, would be an improvement upon the present Commander of the Army of the Mississippi. We will wake up some of these days and find that we have no army of the Mississippi. Then there is awful discouragement at the way the foolish old hunter, who is thot to be a great man, because he is not insane in his prejudices on the negro question, is doing. In God's name what is he waiting for? More reinforcements? Pity he can't die and get out of the way, as Mitchell did.

"But to stop this sort of growling and come to something more practical. The Army West and East is being weakened hourly by desertions; it is the great evil. The thing needful to stop it is for the President to give each Commander of Departments power to shoot deserters; they must be shot by the dozen. The President's weak, puling, piddling humanitarism is death and hell to the army. Can't you take him by the throat and knock his head against the wall, until he is brot to his senses on the war business? I do not speak wantonly when I say there are persons who would feel that they are doing God's service to kill him, if it were not feared that Hamlin is a bigger fool than he is. And yet the pitiful Congress twaddles weakly in private caucus about political matters, as if a little more nigger would do everything. Why don't they pass our finance measure and the Conscript Act, and mind their own business? The proclamation is a positive nuisance to every true, loyal man in the West. It is a weapon in the hands of the Butternuts. If it is made a party test, Vallandingham would be elected Governor of Ohio.

"Do not think I am talking at random. Alas! I know what I am talking about. What is wanted:

"First—A General for our army of the Mississippi.

"Second—Deserters shot by orders of Commanders of Departments.

"Third—Less dependence upon the nigger and more on the white man.

"Fourth—The consolidation of fragments of the regiments.

"Fifth—Arrest and try Henry May and Wendell Phillips for treason.

"Sixth—Suppress the New York Tribune and New York World.

M. HALSTEAD."

And this is the same Murat Halstead whom Hanna has chosen as his champion in this contest. It is the same Halstead who is now pouring out his vitriolic abuse upon Aguinaldo, after having given him to understand, in a semi-official capacity, that he, Halstead was his friend and was doing all he could to gain the independence of the Filipinos. Halstead is the man who advised Aguinaldo to send Agoncillo to Washington and to Paris as a representative of the Filipino Government during the pendency of the Treaty negotiations. No Democrat ever abused Lincoln in a way to injure him as did this man, Halstead, the chosen champion of Mark Hanna.

FOR CONGRESS.

James F. Farraher, of Yreka, Siskiyou County, was the unanimous choice of the delegates of the 1st Congressional Convention for Member of Congress. Mr. Farraher is a young man—a native son—and enjoys a large law practice in Yreka. He has taken an active part in politics for the past ten years. but has never been a candidate for office until now. He is not a professional office seeker like his opponent, Mr. Coombs, but has always been able to earn a livelihood without the aid of a seat at the "pie counter." Mr. Farraher is held in high estimation by the people of the northern part of this district and will make a valuable representative. He is a rustler, a splendid orator and has the courage to win. He will address the citizens of this county on the issue of the day in the near future and all should make it a point to hear him.

COMES OUT FOR BRYAN.

Senator Wellington, of Maryland, the leading Republican in that state, came out squarely and publicly for William J. Bryan, in a speech delivered at Cumberland last Tuesday night. It had been known for some time that Senator Wellington had resolved to support Mr. Bryan, but not until Tuesday night did he make a public declaration of that intent. Colonel Bryan spoke at the same meeting, and thirteen thousand interested hearers were present.

As Senator Wellingtons accession to the ranks of the rapidly growing army of voters who will rally to the support of Bryan and the constitution, marks an epoch in our political history, we cannot do better than to quote from his speech, his public announcement of his proposed future course. He said in part:

"I am here to-night to reiterate the convictions I voiced in the Senate and record my opposition to the principles of President McKinley as evidenced in his foreign policy, and with all the vehemence of a positive nature protest against the violation of the principles upon which our Government is founded; against the desecration of the Constitution and the reversal of the policy which has given us a century and a quarter of national prosperity such as the history of man hath not recorded in any age or elime. I am here to-night to declare my unalterable antagonism to the policy of imperialism and my opposition to the representative of that vicious principle. It is an occasion of more than ordinary importance for any man to antagonize the political party which he has served for a quarter of a century; to which he has given the best years of his life, and through which he has achieved success. It brings much bitterness and vituperation. The vials of wrath have already opened upon me, and there will be much unpleasant work to do. I have determined, however, to do that which is best in the interest of my country, and I do so in the same spirit which was manifested by Lincoln when he stood upon the steps of the national Capitol and in his inaugural address said: 'With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness to do the right as God gives me power to see the right.' I will do my whole duty, and in the performance of that duty find it necessary not only to oppose the re-election of McKinley, but to emphasize that position by supporting Mr. Bryan who in this election stands for free government according to the Constitution."

"Referring to his position upon the Paris treaty Senator Wellington said he had voted for it because he wanted to bring the war to a technical as well as a real close. He had however, only consented to give his vote after securing the President's assurance that it was not his purpose to acquire or hold, against the consent of the inhabitants, the Philippine Islands; that it was his purpose only to restore law and order by American arms in the contest then being waged, and to prevent foreign interference in the affairs of the archipelago."

McKINLEY ON TRUSTS.

Mr. McKinley has written his letter of acceptance. It is a labored effort to justify his administration, to palliate his faults and to cover up his crimes, by false reasoning, based upon misstated or isolated and half stated facts. He devotes two and one-half inches of space in a newspaper column to a discussion of Trusts, and one hundred and five inches to an attempted defence of his acts in the Philippinese and Porto Rico. With regard to Trusts, after stating that combinations of capital which are against the public good are dangerous conspiracies, he proposes his remedy, and here it is in toto:

"Publicity will be a healthful influence to check this evil. This uniformity of legislation in the several states should be secured. Discrimination between what is injurious and what is useful and necessary in business operations is essential to the wise and effective treatment of the subject." And that is all Mr. McKinley has to say about Trusts. Now as to publicity. It is publicly known, acknowledged and not denied that the formation of Trusts has vastly increased during McKinley's administration. The facts of the organization of these Trusts have been published far and wide in newspapers, in magazines and from the platform. Their methods have been exposed, their grasping tyranny laid bare, and their disregard for law and for individual and public rights demonstrated. The arc-light of truth has been thrown upon all their operations and yet they multiply and flourish. Now as to "uniformity of legislation in the states." Mr. McKinley knows full well that many years would be required to perfect that proposed remedy, with almost a certanity that the courts would negate every effort in that direction. And now for the cap-sheaf thot in this remarkable fulmination; remarkable both for its brevity and for the plainly studied effort to say nothing definite.

The milk in the cocoanut is to be found in this sentence:

"Discrimination between what is injurious and what is useful and necessary in business operations is essential to the wise and effective treatment of this subject."

That is a dignified and elaborate way of saying, as did Mark Hanna, that there are good trusts and bad trusts, the general understanding being that those trusts which contribute to the Republican campaign funds are listed by Mr. Hanna as "good trusts." Here the doctrine of granting special privileges is plainly laid down and advocated. Mr. McKinley's position, logically stated, is this: "Combinations of capital which control the market in commodities necessary to the general use of the people, are dangerous conspiracies against the public good, unless they are necessary in business operations." Only that and nothing less. His language cannot be twisted or construed to mean anything else. Thus McKinley stands committed in favor of all Trusts that "are necessary in business operations." And who is to decide what Trusts are necessary? Clearly and inevitably the Trust managers themselves. McKinley therefore is in favor of turning the settlement of the Trust question over to the Trusts. There is no escaping this conclusion. It is the logical and necessary deduction from his own language. This is a startling declaration for the Chief Magristrate of a great nation to make. It should arouse all thinking men. The people should plainly see that no relief for the Trust ridden masses can be expected or even hoped for at the hands of the Hannaized wing of the Republican party. McKinleys own words on this subject ought to condemn him to defeat.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. R. Mathews' City Pharmacy. Every bottle guaranteed.

Mr. McKinleys attempt, in his letter of acceptance, to make it appear that he made an honest effort to intervene in the interest of peace between the British and Boers, will deceive no one. He did make a pro forma statement to the British Government that he had been requested by the South African Republics to intervene, and there it ended. He refused to recognize the Boer Commissioners who came properly credentialed to Washington and shut all official doors in their faces. He removed Consul Marcum who wished to maintain the dignity of the nation he represented at Pretoria, and appointed in his stead the young son of his Secretary of State, sending via London for instructions. McKinley's whole course in that affair has been pro-British and anti-Boer.

Three months ago the sugar Trust secured a monopoly of sugar and have raised the price of that commodity only nine times since—raising it at different intervals from $5.10 100 lbs. to $6.15. This Trust has thus robbed the struggling poor of $316,000,000 all of which has gone into Havemeyer's pocket, and not a cent additional to their "wage earners." This same Trust gave only $1,000,000 to Hanna's campaign fund in '96. No wonder the Trusts howl "prosperity" and "a full dinner pail."

Affairs in China.

The situation in China appears somewhat improved since our last issue. Li Hung Chang has been fully empowered to negotiate with the Powers, and has been ordered to repair at once to Pekin for that purpose. France and Italy have assented to the proposition of the United States and Russia to withdraw the forces from Pekin. Germany has not yet given her consent, but if all the others agree upon such action Germany will be forced to join, or admit that she is after Chinese territory. It is said that the Black Flags, who are marching northward from Canton, are fraternizing with the Boxers, and there is still danger of another uprising, but this is not authenticated. There is also a report that the Empress Dowager was captured by the Russians at Johol, but this also needs confirmation. Four provinces of China are still in a disordered condition and the killing of American citizens and destruction of their property goes on. It will devolve upon the Chinese government to stop these disorders before final negotiations can proceed. Detached parties of the allies are scouring the country, scattering bands of Boxers.

Hops.

While picking and curing are in progress in most sections of this State, there have been no noteworthy arrivals up to date. The crop is turning out decidedly short in most localities in California, and that the yield in Oregon and Washington will be equal to that of last season is not probable. Advices from Europe indicate a marked reduction in the crop abroad. While there is no quotable improvement to record in prices, most of the growers on this coast are holding off, in anticipation of a better market.

Good to choice, 1900 crop.....10 @12

The following concerning the hop market comes thru by recent date from a New York authority:

While there is comparatively little trading, the market is considered in good healthy shape, with outlook favorable, and prices are held firmly and with confidence. Some inquiries are noted, and no doubt considerable business could be done on the basis of prices talked a few weeks ago. Brewers are not showing much interest at the moment. Crop reports from this State continue good, and it now begins to look as if we would have as many hops as last year. We hear that some imprudent growers are commencing to pick their Humphreys, which, in the opinion of the trade, is thot to be too early. We would again caution State growers not to be in any too great hurry to pick before the hops are well ripened, and also to pick clean and avoid the troubles of last year's crop, which was the dirtiest on record. Reports from the Pacific coast, more especially from Oregon, are all that could be desired, and growers at the time being are unwilling to name a price for the new crop. Reports from Washington and California are unchanged. By a typographical error in last week's report, the English crop was said to be estimated two-thirds less than last year, but it should have read one-third less. Latest English advices are not as good, and the maximum estimates do not place the yield over £200,000 old duty, and some authorities claim even less, as against £330,000 old duty last year.—Rural Press.

The Coming Show.

The coming Show of Leondor Bros. is a big attraction and always draws a large crowd. The Oregonian, of Portland, Oregon, of April 14th, says of this show:

"We get more than our money's worth, was the general acclamation of those who attended Leondor Bros'. big one ring circus in their large tent on 10th and Clay street. It can safely be asserted that they present more novelties, and give better satisfaction, than many larger circuses which charge a much larger admission price. One of the greatest attractions of the show is the living monumental fountain statuary act of the Leondor Bros., which never fails to bring them well merited applause. Another strong act is Gardella, the Contortionist; also the wire walking juggler, Sid Baxter. Among the other numerous performers can be seen an aggregation of first-class tumblers, acrobats, gymnasts, contortionists, and the clowns with their donkeys. Also Prof. Hunt and his troupe of 30 performing dogs.

Leondor Bros'. show is as great an attraction for grown people as for children, and from day to day the attendance has increased."

The big show will be in Ukiah two days, commencing next Monday and Tuesday, September 17th and 18th, two performances each day. Door opens at 1:30 and 7 p. m. Admission 25 and 50cts.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

KANSAS CITY.—The following is the official text of the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention:

We, the representatives of the Democratic party of the United States, assembled in national convention on the anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, do reaffirm our faith in that immortal proclamation of the inalienable rights of man and our allegiance to the constitution formed in harmony therewith by the fathers of the republic. We hold with the United States supreme court that the Declaration of Independence is the spirit of our government, of which the constitution is the form and letter. We declare again that all governments instituted among men derive their just powers from the consent of the governed; that any government not based upon the consent of the governed is a tyranny: and that to impose upon any people a government is to substitute the methods of imperialism for those of a republic. We hold that the constitution follows the flag and denounces the doctrine that an executive or congress, deriving their existence and powers from the constitution, can exercise lawful authority beyond it or in violation of it. We assert that no nation can long endure half republic and half empire, and we warn the people that imperialism abroad will lead quickly and inevitably to despotism at home.

Porto Rico Tariff Law Denounced.

Believing in these fundamental principles, we denounce the Porto Rican law enacted by a Republican congress against the protest and opposition of the Democratic minority, as a bold and open violation of the nation's organic law and a flagrant breach of the national good faith. It imposes upon the people of Porto Rico a government without their consent and taxation without representation. It dishonors the American people by repudiating a solemn pledge made in their behalf by the commanding general of our army, which the Porto Ricans welcomed to a peaceful and unresisted occupation of their land. It doomed to poverty and distress a people whose helplessness appeals with peculiar force to our justice and magnanimity. In this, the first act of its imperialistic programme, the Republican party seeks to commit the United States to a colonial policy, inconsistent with Republican institutions and condemned by the supreme court in numerous decisions.

Plank on the Cuban Question.

We demand the prompt and honest fulfillment of every pledge to the Cuban people and the world, that the United States has no disposition or intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over the island of Cuba, except for its pacification. The war ended nearly two years ago, profound peace reigns all over the island, and still the administration keeps the government of the island from its people, while Republican carpet-bag officials plunder its revenues and exploit the colonial theory to the disgrace of the American people.

Philippine Policy Condemned.

We condemn and denounce the Philippine policy of the present administration. It has embroiled the republic in an unnecessary war, sacrificed the lives of many of its noblest sons and placed the United States, previously known and applauded throughout the world as the champion of freedom, in the false and un-American position of crushing with military force the efforts of our former allies to achieve liberty and self-government. The Filipinos cannot be citizens without endangering our civilization; they cannot be subjects without imperiling our form of government, and as we are not willing to surrender our civilization or to convert the republic into an empire, we favor an immediate declaration of the nation's purpose to give to the Filipinos first, a state of government; second, independence, and third, protection from outside interference such as has been given for nearly a century to the republics of Central and South America.

The greedy commercialism which dictated the Philippine policy of the Republican administration attempts to justify it with the plea that it will pay, but even this sordid and unworthy plea fails when brought to the test of facts. The "war of criminal aggression" against the Philippines, entailing annually an expense of many millions, has already cost more than any possible profit that could accrue from the entire Philippine trade for years to come. Furthermore, when trade is extended at the expense of liberty, the price is always too high.

Democrats and Territorial Expansion.

We are not opposed to territorial expansion, when it takes in desirable territory which can be erected into states in the union, and whose people are willing and fit to become American citizens. We favor trade expansion by every peaceful and legitimate means; but we are unalterably opposed to the seizing or purchasing of distant islands to be governed outside the constitution and whose people can never become citizens. We are in favor of extending the republic's influence among the nations, but believe that influence should be extended, not by force and violence, but through the persuasive policy of a high and honorable example.

Imperialism the Burning Issue.

The importance of other questions now pending before the American people is in nowise diminished, and the Democratic party takes no backward step from its position on them, but the burning issue of imperialism, growing out of the Spanish war, involves the very existence of the republic and the destruction of our free institutions. We regard it as the paramount issue of the campaign.

The declaration in the Republican platform adopted at the Philadephia convention held in June, 1900, that the Republican party "steadfastly adheres to the policy announced in the Monroe doctrine" is manifestly insincere and deceptive. This profession is contridicted by the avowed policy of the party in opposition to the spirit of the Monroe doctrine, to acquire and hold sovereignty over large areas of territory and large numbers of people in the eastern hemisphere. We insist on the strict maintenance of the Monroe doctrine, and in all its integrity, in letter and in spirit, as necessary to prevent the extension of European authority on this continent and as essential to our supremacy in American affairs. At the same time we declare that no American people shall ever be held by force in unwilling subjection to European authority.

Opposition to Militarism.

We oppose militarism. It means conquest abroad and intimidation and oppression at home. It means the strong arm, which has ever been fatal to free institutions. It is what millions of our citizens have fled from in Europe. It will impose upon our peace-loving people a large standing army, an unnecessary burden of taxation and a constant menace to their liberties. A standing army and a well-disciplined state militia are amply sufficient in time of peace. This republic has no place for a vast military service and conscription. When the nation is in danger the volunteer soldier is his country's best defender. The national guard of the United States should ever be cherished in the patriotic hearts of a free people. Such organizations are ever an element of strength and safety. For the first time in our history and coeval with the Philippine contest has there been a wholesale departure from our time-honored and approved system of volunteer organization We denounce it as un-American, un-Democratic, and as a subversion of the ancient and fixed principles of a free people.

Democrats and the Trust Issue.

Private monopolies are indefensible and intolerable. They destroy competition, control the price of all material and finished produts, thus robbing both producer and consumer. They lesson the employment of labor and arbitrarily fix the terms and conditions thereof, and deprive individual energy and small capital of their opportunity for betterment. They are the most efficient means yet devised for appropriating the fruits of industry to the benefit of the few at the expense of the many, and unless their insatiate greed is checked all wealth will be aggravated in a few hands and the republic will be destroyed. The dishonest paltering with the trust evil by the Republican party in state and national platforms is conclusive proof of the truth of the charge that trusts are the legitimate product of Republican policies, that they are fostered by Republican laws and that they are protected by the Republican administration in return for campaign subscriptions and political support.

War Declared on Private Monopolies.

We pledge the Democratic party to an unceasing warfare in nation, state and city against private monopoly in every form. Existing laws against trusts must be enforced and more stringent ones must be enacted providing for publicity as to affairs of corporations engaged in interstate commerce and requiring all corporations to show before doing business outside of the state of their origin that they have no water in their stock and that they have not attempted, and are not attempting to monopolize any business or the production of any articles of merchandise, and the whole constitutional power of congress over interstate commerce and the mills and all modes of interstate communication shall be exercised by the enactment of comprehensive laws upon the subject of trusts. Tariff laws should be amended by putting the products of trusts upon the free list to prevent monopoly under the plea of protection.

The failure of the present Republican administration, with an absolute control over all the branches of national government, to enact any legislation designed to prevent or even curtail the absorbing power of trusts and illegal combinations, or to enforce the anti-trust laws already on the statute books, prove the insincerity of the high-sounding phrases of Republican platform. Corporations should be protected in all their rights, and legitimate interests should be respected, but any attempt by corporat ons to interfere with the public affairs of the people or to control the sovereignty which created them should be forbidden under such penalties as will make such attempts impossible.

We condemn the Dingley tariff law as a trust-breeding measure, skillfully devised to give the few favors which they do not deserve and to place upon the many burdens which they should not bear.

We favor such an enlargement of the scope of the interstate commerce law as will enable the commission to protect individuals and communities from discrimination and the public from unjust and unfair transportation rates.

Free Coinage and Paper Money.

We reaffirm and indorse the principles of the national Democratic platform adopted at Chicago in 1896, and we reiterate the demand of that platform for an American financial system made by the American people for themselves, which shall restore and maintain a bimetallic price level, and as part of such system the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ration of 16 to 1, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation.

We denounce the currency bill enacted at the last session of congress as a step forward in the Republican policy which aims to discredit the sovereign right of the national government to issue all money, whether coin or paper, and to bestow upon national banks the power to issue and control the volume of paper money for their own benefit. A permanent national bank currency, secured by government bonds, must have a permanent debt to rest upon, and if the bank currency is to increase with population and business, the debt must also increase. The Republican currency scheme is, therefore, a scheme for fastening upon the taxpayer a perpetual and growing debt for the benefit of the banks. We are opposed to this private corporation paper circulated as money, but without legal tender qualities, and demand the retirement of national bank notes, as the government paper of silver certificates can be substituted for them.

We favor an amendment to the federal constitution providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, and we favor direct legislation wherever practicable.

Opposition to Government by Injunction

We are opposed to government by injunction; we denounce the blacklist and favor arbitration as a means of settling disputes between corporations and their employes.

In the interest of American labor and the upbuilding of the workingman, as the corner stone of the prosperity of our country, we recommend that congress establish a department of labor in charge of a secretary with a seat in the cabinet, believing that the elevation of the American laborer will bring with it increased production and increased prosperity to our country at home and to our commerce abroad.

We are proud of the courage and fidelity of the American soldiers and sailors in all our wars; we favor liberal pensions to them and their dependents and we reiterate the position taken in the Chicago platform of 1896, that the fact of enlistment and service shall be deemed conclusive evidence against disease and disability before enlistment.

In Favor of Nicaragua Canal.

We favor the immediate construction, ownership and control of the Nicaraguan canal by the United States and we denounce the insincerity of the plank adopted in the Republican National convention for an isthmian canal in the face of the failure of the Republican majority to pass the bill pending in congress. We condemn the Hay-Pauncefote treaty as a surrender of American rights and interests, not to be tolerated by the American people.

We denounce the failure of the Republican party to carry out its pledges to grant statehood to the territories of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma, and we promise the people of those territories immediate statehood and home rule during their conditions as territories, and we favor home rule as a territorial form of government for Alaska and Porto Rico.

Improvement of Arid Lands.

We favor an intelligent system [illegible] proving the arid lands of th[illegible] ing the waters for purpo[illegible] gation and the holding of such lands for actual settlers.

We favor the continuance and strict enforcement of the Chinese exclusion law and its application to the same classes of all Asiatic races.

Jefferson said: "Peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations, entangling alliances with none." We approve this wholesome doctrine and earnestly protest against the Republican departure which has involved us in so-called world politics, including the diplomacy of Europe and intrigue and land grabbing of Asia, and we especially condemn the ill concealed Republican alliance with England, which must mean discrimination against other friendly nations, and which has already stifled the nation's commerce while liberty is becoming strangled in Africa.

Sympathy for Struggling Boers.

Believing in the principles of self-government and rejecting as did our forefathers the claim of monarchy, we view with indignation the purpose of England to overwhelm with force the South African republics. Speaking as we believe, for the entire American nation, except its Republican office-holders, and for all free men everywhere, we extend our sympathies to the heroic burghers in their unequal struggle to maintain their liberty and independence.

Repeal of the War Taxes.

We denounce the lavish appropriations of the recent Republican congresses, which have kept taxes high and which threaten the perpetuation of oppressive war levies. We oppose the accumulation of a surplus to be squandered in such barefaced frauds upon the taxpayers as the shipping subsidy bill, which, under the false protense of prospering American ship-building, would put unearned millions into the pockets of several contributors to the Republican campaign fund. We favor the reduction and speedy repeal of the war taxes and a return to the time-honored Democratic policy of strict economy in governmental expenditures.

Believing that our most cherished institutions are in great peril, that the very existence of our constitutional republic is at stake, and that the decision now to be rendered will determine whether or not our children are to enjoy those blessed privileges of free government which have made the United States great, prosperous and honored, we earnestly ask for the foregoing declaration of principles the hearty support of the liberty-loving American people, regardless of previous party affiliations.

"A Bit Shaky."

A man looks at his trembling hands and says: "I feel a bit shaky this morning, and shall need a bracer." His real need is not nerve stimulant, but nerve strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gives strength to the nervous system. It does not brace up, but builds up. It is entirely free from alcohol and from opium, cocaine, and other narcotics usually found in so-called nerve medicines.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." It cures.

David Duggins, Esq., of Jones, Ohio Co., Ky., writes: "When I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I had nervous or general debility of three years' duration. I took three bottles of the 'Discovery.' During the time I was taking it my sleep became more refreshing and I gained fifteen pounds weight, and also gained strength every day."

Free. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for book bound in paper, or 31 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

AT THE

CITY OF UKIAH

With the beginning of our second season in business in Ukiah we are opening up with as fine a line of Fall and Winter Goods as has ever been shown by any first class store in the largest cities in the United States. As we have stated in the last issue of this paper that our great Fall Stock will be an eye opener to the public, this fact has already been substantiated by many of our numerous lady customers who have looked through our great stock of : :

Dress Goods
French Flannels,
Sillks,

Woolen Skirts,
Silk Skirts,
Crepon Skirts,
Underskirts

LADIES' JACKETS & WAISTS

Also a Great Many Other Articles Too Numerous to Mention.

This being the beginning of our second season in business in CITY of UKIAH we wish to call attention to the success we have had in our first season's business. We are doing a business free from all the humbug, exaggeration and misrepresentation practiced by other stores. Up to the present time our sales have exceeded by over 25 per cent, the amount we had expected to reach. This is certainly a splendid endorsement of our business methods, which are to give the best values in all classes of desirable up-to-date goods, selling them at lower prices than can be found anywhere else in the State. We do not buy trashy goods or job lots in old goods; We also avoid the methods practiced by other stores of offering baits in the form of small articles at less than cost to give the impression that all goods are equally cheap. Every article in our store is marked on its merits and prepared to stand every test of comparison. We do not mark some goods at an excessive profit to cover the loss on others. We believe in and practice square dealing.
